Noa Wertheim

At the Suzanne Dellal Center in Tel Aviv last Wednesday, the Vertigo Dance Company performed the premiere production of Lila, the newest creation choreographed by the band's artistic director Noa Wertheim. Attending were: Michael Fisher, chair of the dance company's board; Sarah and Michael Sela; Hadassa Shani; MK Orly Fruman; Aliza Jaffa; and philanthropist Mike Fliderbaum.

At the end of the performance and the festive reception that followed, the two Vertigo directors – Adi Shaal and Noa Wertheim – rushed to the airport to catch their flight to Naples to prepare for their performance at the Naples Theater Festival, which is scheduled to take place in the ancient amphitheater of Pompeii.

Lihi Lapid; Zvika Limon; Lilach Sigan and Ligad Rotlevy.

Coffee ground compost

Nespresso Israel CEO Moshe Marie and Golan Heights Winery CEO Yair Shapira jointly announced their cooperation that led to fertilizing the winery's vineyards with recycled coffee ground compost. The two organized a dinner party at chef Shahaf Shabtai's Nithan Thai restaurant in Tel Aviv. The first Israeli wine made from grapes grown using ecological fertilizer made from recycled Nespresso coffee compost was launched at the event. Chefs Yuval Ben Neria, Orel Kimhi and Raz Rahav attended the event.
